

SAVE THE DATE!

November 21, 2015
8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Quinnipiac University

LivaNova

Please join LivaNova for a day of clinical discussion on improving patient outcomes with improved technologies in cardiac surgery.

New Perfusion Technology to Improve Patient Outcomes

Held in Conjunction with the Connecticut Society of Perfusion and Quinnipiac University

Program Chair, David Lizak, CCP
President, Connecticut Society of Perfusion, St. Vincent's Medical Center, Bridgeport, CT

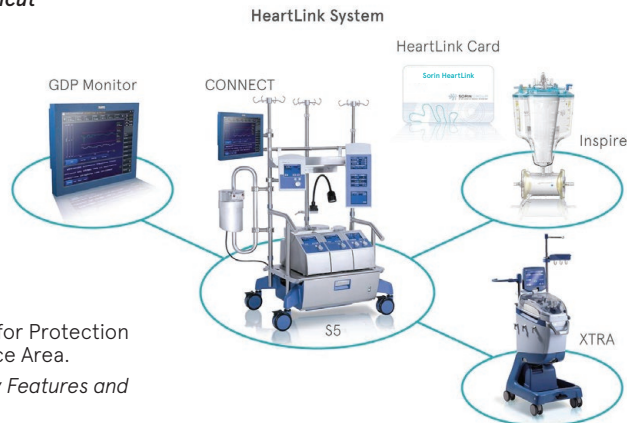

Featuring faculty speakers of practicing perfusionists.
CEUs Pending

Topics include:

- Oxygenator Selection, Implications for Protection from GME, Hemodilution and Surface Area.
- Your Pump, Your Practice. S5 Safety Features and Custom Configurations
- Heater/Cooler Update, Focus on Patient Safety
- Accurate and Complete Electronic Patient Records, CONNECT and HeartLink
- Reducing the Risk of Acute Kidney Injury, Improving Transfusion Decisions
- Goal Directed Perfusion, Improving Outcomes with Information
- Improving the Quality of Autologous Blood, XTRA Advanced Blood Processing Protocols
- Interactive Hands-On Sessions

RSVP to: info.cardiacsurgery.us@livanova.com

Quinnipiac University
370 Bassett Rd., North Haven, CT
Room NMH-101

Lunch and refreshments will be provided

